LEFEW'S CONDITION MUCH IMPROVED

A Critical Stage Passed and Hope of His Recovery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, VA., November 1.—The condition of Dr. Frederick Lefew is very much improved to-day. He rested well last night, and his general condition shows improvement. He has passed over one of the fatal turns and the one most feared now is blood poison. The physicians at leading him are very much encouraged. now is aboot poison. The physicians at-tending him are very much encouraged. The news from Dr. Lefew has had the effect of quieting the excitement in the city. There are no new developments in the matter. No statements have been made by Mr. Fishburn, and none is ex-

EAST RADFORD. VA., Nov. 1.—The bridge over Connelley's Run, which spans the ravice and treek between East and West Radford, was set after last night by some miscreant, whose Hallowe'en loke the light of the miscreant, whose Hallowe'en loke the last night by some miscreant, whose Hallowe'en loke the last night by some miscreant, whose Hallowe'en loke trunk was taken from the Norfolk and Western station and left broken onlent were found to-day in a field a mille distant.

Tom Spead, a Norfolk and Western freman, twenty-two years old, and Frank Gray, a painter, aged about forty-live, have been arrested for burglaries extending over a period of more than six months. Two hundred dollars' worth of tools, besides clothing stolen from a Norfolk and Western brakeman, and goods stolen from a store six months ago, were found in Snead's room, besides many other things.

City Sergeant McNeal and Mayor Linksous are still at work on the case, and soveral arrests are expected in a day or two. Snead was indicted for stabling william Collins, of Pembroke, on the night of October 20th, in an attempt to rob him at Connelley's Run Bridge. Collins's wounds were not considered dangerous, but blood poison set in, and he is now in a critical condition.

Snead's arrest led to a clue, which when followed up resulted in the discovery of the stolen goods and later to Gray's arrest. The guilty men were taken to Pulaski City for safekeeping tonight, as their escape was feared through the connivance of confederates.

Both men lave lived in Radford for Officen years.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(ROCKY MOUNT, VA., Nov. 1.—News has reached here of the shooting of charles Guilliams by his cousin, Robert Guilliams, near Pig River Postolice, ten miles south of Rocky Mount. The two young men were returning from a sugarcane boiling and fet into a playful sculle, both being under the influence of laquor, when Robert threw his arm over Charless shoulder and fired off his pistoi—he says, to frighten him. Instead of the built flying into space harmlessly it entered the side of the young man, fatally wounding him.

The physicians gave it as their opinion that he can live but a few days at most. No arrests have been made, as both parties say the shooting was accidental.

Appeal in Interesting Case. Appeal in Interesting Case. Judge R. H. Cardwell has granted an appeal in the case of John L. Winder vs. L. Floyd Nock, from Northampton Country Circuit Court. This case grows out of the sale by Nock of a farm of 181 acres, alleged to have been owned jointly by Winder and Nock. Winder charged breach of contract and fraud on the part of Nock, alleging that the farm was sold without consulting him and for a figure less than the real value of the land. The record in the case is a voluminous one, and many questions, both of law and of fact, are raised. Messrs. Wise and Watkins, of this city, represent the plaintiff.

SCHOOLS.

MISS MARIAH BLAIR'S CLASS

WILL OPEN NOVEMBER 3D. 4:30 o'clock, at 705 West Grace Street with a lecture on Places, associated with Jersey of the Impediance of turning down the strenuous man with imperialist cholons.

In talking with a man of some note in front of the Dairy Kitchen, he said he was grieved to see the indifference displayed by the men in Wall Street, as to the ultimate fate of the country.

"Unless the country gets together as one man," he said, "and sends a Democrat to the White House, we will go to the demnition midnight howlers, and, as he was about to say some more, a gentlemanly member of the Broadway squadicame up and-cloid him to move on.

Wilch de done.

We do not think the policy of banking all the avallable United States funds in the Treasury, as practiced by the Republicans, takes well with Tammany.

It is against the example set by Tweed and others, and has been relegated to the archives by the present Tammany administration.

We took a trip through Long Island City in tow of Billy Keese. He showed us the secretary of the President of the borough, and he showed us his pretty brunctic typewriter, All together, we had a line time at luncheon, and we were more than over impressed with the election- of Parker.

On the other hand, the Republicans tell us that if we don't let Teddy stay in the and the Bedlow's Island ferry will cease to run.

'At mational headquarters yesterday, a min high in the counsels of the party, showed us a piece of paper, 4x4, upon which he had written the names of the States most likely to go for Parker, Among those in doubt, but leaving that out, was Ohio.

'Now, if we can only get control of the ballot tox in Columbus, we're all right.' he said. "We will send some good talkers out there, and if they ever get through, we will have hopes.

'Take Pennsylvania, too. We have a good fighting chance there, for those manufacturers and miners are sore over the high tariff, and Roosevelt's negre policy is telling on him in Maine and Vermont. I look for a landside in New Hampshire. Have a cigar.'

Then the gentleman with the polka dot vost put his feet on the chiffonier, and started to rend the syoring edition of the Sim.

Betting on the general result is out of and started to rend the sporting cultion of the Sun.

Betting on the general result is out of sight. We haven't seen any of it ye'. The mud larks are warming up, and it is hinted that at the proper moment, a bet of 10 to 1 will be spring on the dark horse.

And now, dear Mr. Editor, if you w'll please send us some more expense money, we will take a run over to dear Lunnon, and see what they think of the election at Buckingham. Please send us some stamps? Contract for Retaining Wall.

The contract for Recarding wall,
